

Archetype Script Reframing

Completed by: Maya Haddad | Date: September 25, 2026

Choose the archetype identified in your previous assessment. Complete both its Old Story and New Story prompts from your real experience rather than what feels ideal.

Guardian

Old Story

When I think about spending money or taking financial risks, I feel I need certainty before I can feel secure.

The first thing I imagine might happen is I need certainty before I can feel secure.

Growing up, I learned that money meant I need certainty before I can feel secure.

Because of those experiences, I decided that I need certainty before I can feel secure.

Since then, I have often told myself: "I need certainty before I can feel secure."

This belief has affected the way I earn, spend, save, or invest by I need certainty before I can feel secure.

New Story

Today, I recognize that my childhood decision helped me feel safe, but it does not have to guide every financial decision I make.

I now choose to believe that I can make balanced choices with confidence.

When I make financial decisions from my Adult self, I can I can make balanced choices with confidence.

My new financial story is: "I can make balanced choices with confidence."
